It's been almost two months since the birth of Baby Jonas — also known as Alena Rose Jonas — and it seems like people just can't stop talking about how adorable she is. And of course there are two people who would totally agree with that statement, parents Kevin and Danielle Jonas.

Kevin and Danielle recently took a little time to sit down with Babble to talk about their new lives as celebrity parents and how they are handling the round-the-clock feedings, sleepless nights, and diaper duty shifts with their new bundle of joy. The Jonas family also gave Babble a first look at Alena's stylish nursery, designed by Vanessa Antonelli of NessaLee Baby which set the couple back $14,000. But hey, when you've got the world's cutest baby and two parents that are head-over-heels in love with her, only the best will do, right?

Check out our Q&A with Kevin and Danielle Jonas below, along with pics of Alena's nursery too and let us know what you think!

What have been the best surprises of parenthood so far? As far as looks and personality, is Alena Rose leaning more towards being like her mother or her father?

Danielle: Falling in love with her everyday over and over again has been the best surprise. And seeing how she is so constantly curious.

Kevin: Alena looks like her dad from the front, and her mother from the back.

With that being said, what have been the most unexpected surprises? How has your life changed with your newborn baby?

Danielle: The full realization of the responsibility that you are not only taking care of yourself but a whole other life that relies completely on you.

Kevin: Operating on little sleep and that Alena would bring my wife and I even closer than we already are.

Being around boys so much, how does it feel to finally have a little girl, Kevin?

Kevin: Dream come true!! I always wanted a little girl.

Does changing diapers make any of you nervous?

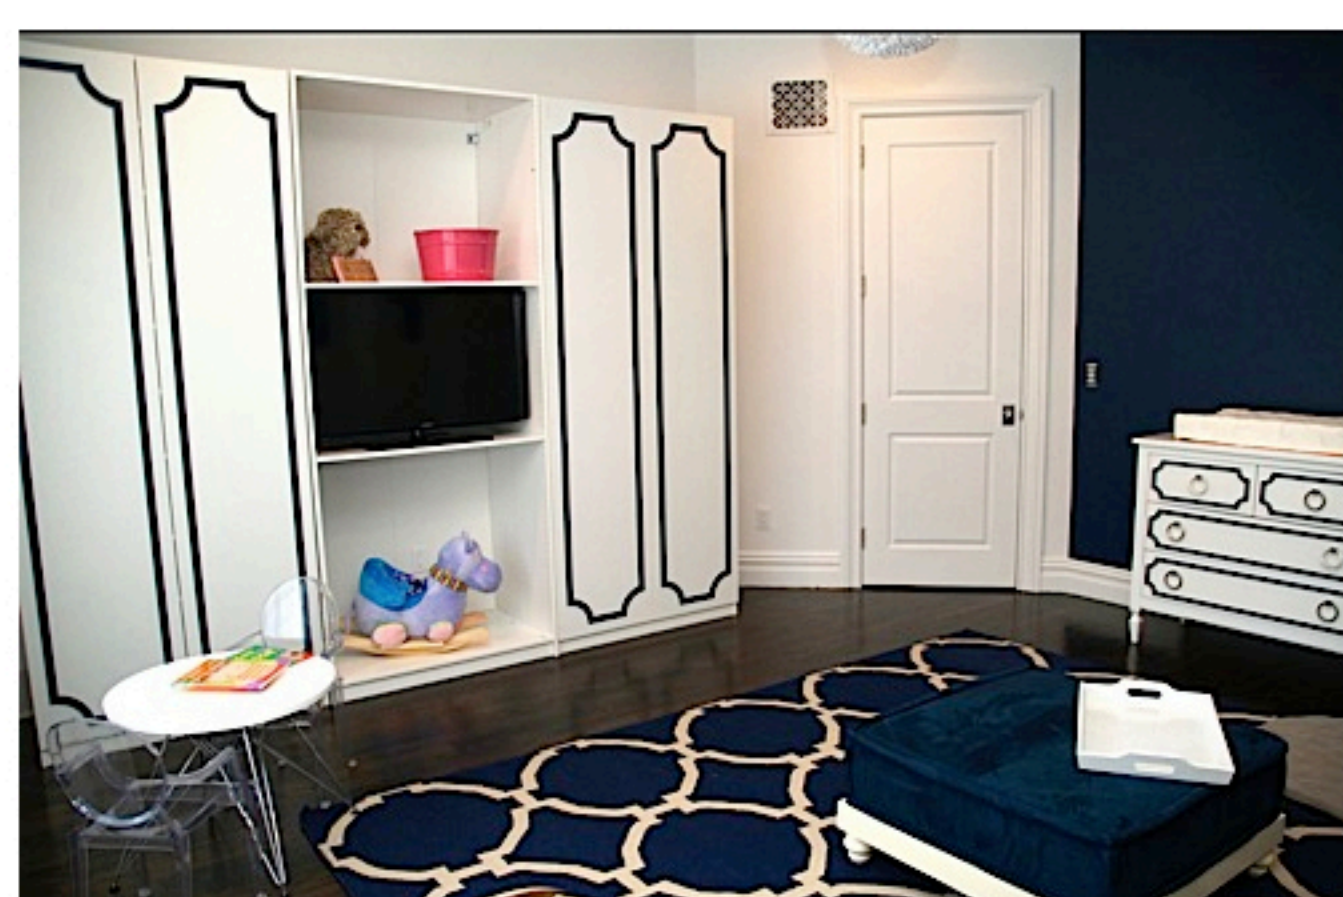

Kevin: No way. You get used to it.

Danielle, do you have any celebrity moms that you follow on social media?

Danielle: Yes, Jessica Alba and Jessica Simpson.

What do the two of you think of Kristen Bell's recent anti-paparazzi campaign to help protect children of celebrities from being photographed? Have you two had any issues with your family being photographed?

We believe it's a parent's right to release images of their children and no one else's. We understand that is a necessary evil but we will try and avoid them. We haven't had those issues yet and hope we never have an issue.
