Danielle and Kevin Jonas chose navy blue for Alena Rose's playroom

Blue (It's not just for boys anymore!)

Blue is a great choice for both genders. Laila Ali painted her nursery a serene blue, then "girlified" it with pink furniture; Jessica Alba paired aqua blue with other fun, bright colors; and Danielle and Kevin Jonas went with a regal navy blue for their daughter's playroom.

Pro tip: Choose your blue first (aqua, teal and navy will all work), then choose one or two complimentary colors. If you want the nursery to still have a strong feminine feel, choose pinks, purples and corals for your complements.
